

Name THOMAS HEMMINGS
DOB 1898
Place of birth Trentham (Tittensor, Staffs)
Lived at Strongford Mill, Tittensor and Ash Green, Trentham
Occupation Railway worker – probably a platelayer
Family His parents were Thomas and Eleanor Hemmings and there were six children [3 boys and 3 girls]
Marital Status Single

Service [1]North Staffs Regiment
 [2]2/4th Battalion, East Lancashire Regiment
Reg number North Staffs Regiment 36644
 East Lancashire Regiment 29927
Rank Private

Date of death 10th October 1917
Age at death 19
Place of death The Battle of Poelcapelle, Passchendaele Ridge
Cause of death Killed in action
Grave or Memorial His body was not found. He is remembered on the Tyne Cot Memorial Zonnebeke, West Flanders, Belgium. Panel 77-79 and 163A

Also on family gravestone in Trentham Cemetery (behind the Mausoleum)
 'In loving memory of Eleanor beloved wife of Thomas Hemmings of Ash Green Trentham who died May 19th 1925 aged 57 years.

"Thy will be done"

Also Thomas Hemmings who died November 26 1941 aged 72 years
 "Always a sweet memory"

Also Tom, son of the above, fell in the Great War
 October 1917 aged 19 years.'

Medals Victory Medal, British Medal
Other information Also listed on the roll of honour Stoke station for railway workers of the North Staffordshire Railway Company killed during the war.

